

Mark Corallo, MA CCC-SLP
mcorallo@creativecommunicators.net

14 Belfield Avenue
Staten Island, NY 10312
p: 917-734-2292
f: 718-966-0400

Objective

To utilize progressive educational mediums such as television and theater to advance my skills and gain further experience in the speech and language development of children with speech and language disorders.

Professional Profile

- Highly proficient speech and language pathologist with proven capabilities and organizational skills.
- Nine years of nationally-recognized project experience involving planning, developing, fundraising, producing and consulting on multifaceted, interdisciplinary and multimedia programs, tools and services.
- Child-language consultant with focus on language comprehension and expression, pragmatic language development and social skills as well as motor planning for improved speech production.
- Well-rounded, communicative, driven and passionate with solid analytical and writing skills.
- Innovative, self-motivated, tutor, trainer, team-builder, project manager and educational leader.
- Fluent in American Sign Language, Dialect Coach, Voiceover Artist

Experience

Founder, Executive Director 11/2003 - Present
Creative Communicators, PC (Staten Island, NY)

- Assessments and evaluations for pediatric populations (birth to five) specializing in apraxia, of speech, phonology, PDD, autism. cognitive deficits, cleft palate, oral motor delays and mental retardation.
- Published original educational books and toys to assist in meeting the speech and language needs of children.
- Recruit and develop collaborative support network of therapists for project planning, events and programming.
- Developing original children's educational programming for print, online and broadcast mediums.

Executive Director 05/2000 - Present
No Limits Theater Group (New Brunswick, NJ)

- Successfully produced educational theater programming for orally hearing-impaired children.
- Built outreach, increased awareness and public interest as to the capabilities of this population.
- Character building, presentation skills and teamwork exercises to increase quality of life.
- Fundraising, business development and client relations through private and corporate channels.

Speech Language Pathologist 07/2002 - Present
United Cerebral Palsy of New York (Staten Island, NY)

- Teamwork approach to clinical therapy services for children from birth to five years of age.
- Staff development, presentations, group therapy and applied social services.
- Apply oral motor, feeding, language and augmentative communication services.

Education

Connecticut School of Television and Radio Broadcasting (Hasbrouck Heights, NJ) Grad: 12/2000
Certificate Degree, Television & Broadcasting Communications

St. John's University (Jamaica, NY) Grad: 05/1998
MA, Speech-Language Pathology

St. John's University (Staten Island, NY) Grad: 01/1996
BA, Speech Communications

[references and letters of referral available upon request]